DAY 1 · SATURDAY, OCTOBER 9 Montreal (Arrival) L

Upon arrival at the Montreal Cruise Port, guests will be met and escorted on a guided city tour that showcases the vibrant character of the city. The journey begins in Old Montreal, where cobblestone streets and historic architecture evoke the charm of centuries past, followed by a visit to the lively Old Port and the modern heart of Downtown Montreal. Along the way, visit the magnificent Notre-Dame Basilica, a Gothic Revival masterpiece that stands as one of the city's most iconic landmarks. Lunch is enjoyed at the bustling Jean-Talon Market, renowned for its fresh produce, artisanal goods, and authentic local flavors. Afterward, a leisurely stroll through Little Italy offers a glimpse of Montreal's cultural diversity, with its quaint cafés and welcoming atmosphere. In the afternoon, the tour continues to St. Joseph's Oratory, Canada's largest church and a revered pilgrimage site. Later, drop back at the cruise port for an overnight on your cruise ship.

Overnight on board your cruise ship (English-speaking guide)

Notre-Dame Basilica

St. Joseph's Oratory

DAY 2 · SUNDAY, OCTOBER 10 Montreal B, L

Pick up from the cruise port around 8:30 AM and transfer to the hotel (check-in starts at 3:00 PM). Drop your baggage and proceed for a visit to the historic Château Ramezay, a former governor's residence turned museum that offers fascinating insights into Quebec's colonial past. Following this cultural immersion, guests will embark on a walking food tour, where lunch is included as part of the experience. This guided culinary journey highlights Montreal's diverse gastronomy, from traditional French-Canadian flavors to international influences, allowing travelers to savor the city's vibrant food scene. Return to the hotel for check-in. The rest of the afternoon is left free for leisure and shopping, providing time to explore Montreal's stylish boutiques, artisanal shops, and lively districts at your own pace.

Overnight in Montreal (no guide)

DAY 3 · MONDAY, OCTOBER 11 Montreal B

After breakfast at the hotel, the day is free at leisure; relax or explore Montreal at your own leisurely pace. You can choose to book an optional Underground City tour (at additional cost), offering a fascinating glimpse into the city's extensive network of interconnected shopping centers, walkways, and cultural spaces beneath the streets. In the evening around 5:00 PM, pick up at the hotel and drop off at the magnificent Notre-Dame Basilica to experience AURA (timing 5:30 PM – 6:00 PM), a breathtaking multimedia show that combines light, sound, and architecture to create an unforgettable spiritual and artistic spectacle. After this memorable evening, the group will take a short walk to Modavie Restaurant for dinner with musical performances before their transfer back to the hotel for an overnight stay in Montreal.

Overnight in Montreal (no guide; transport only for the AURA show and drop-off at the hotel after dinner)

Optional: HD Underground City Tour
USD 85 per person (minimum 2 persons)

Montreal's "Underground City" (RÉSO) is a vast pedestrian network beneath downtown, stretching over 33 km (20+ miles), connecting metro stations, shopping centers, hotels, offices, and cultural venues. It's not just tunnels—it's a lively urban space with shops, restaurants, art, and attractions, especially useful in winter or summer extremes.

Includes: Return transfers from the hotel, services of an English-speaking guide.
