Panama Canal Full Transit Cruise

January 24th-February 8th, 2028

Join us as we embark on an unparalleled journey through the Panama Canal! Departing from the Port of Miami, we will start our trip with two days at sea. We then will arrive to Cartagena, Columbia, a port city on Colombia's Caribbean coast. Near the sea is the walled Old Town, founded in the 16th century, with squares, cobblestone streets and colorful colonial buildings. With a tropical climate, the city is also a popular beach destination. Next we will make a port in Colon Panama, Colón is the capital of Colón Province, in Panama. It sits on the Caribbean coast, at the entrance to the Panama Canal. Sail into the Caribbean seaport of Colón and grab a good spot on deck so you can take in the view. What a picture it is! Behold the Atlantic Ocean entrance to the famous Panama Canal. Born from a desire to get to California (and its Gold Rush) as fast as possible, this industrious town was the last stop on the 19th century Panama Railroad. It's now home to Canal Zones, U.S. military bases and of course, beauty. Our next stop, just a few miles from Puerto Caldera is Puntarenas, where stunning beaches, an array of wildlife, and streets lined with restaurants, bars and cafés await. Carara National Park is a must for nature lovers and features ancestral trees and secondary forests, perfect for spotting wildlife such as crocodiles and 400-plus species of birds, including colorful scarlet macaws. Or, switch gears and party with the locals at Jaco, about 30 miles south. There, find sun, fun and sand with plenty of bars and places to grab a bite. Next, we will go to Puerto Quetzal, this port city was constructed in 1984 to help connect nearby cities. Travelers often venture out to Antigua, a 90-minute trek to where 17th century colonial facades beckons and Guatemalan history comes alive. We have another relaxing day at sea before stopping in Acapulco. One more day at sea, then finally, we will stop at Cabo San Lucas. Explore this unique locale where stunning azure waters meet dramatic desert landscapes. You could cruise to the peninsula's southern tip and take in Cabo's signature landmark, El Arco ("The Arch"), a rock formation at the tip of "Land's End". Relax at one of the area's luxurious beach bars, or take a leisurely stroll through local markets. Then we end in Los Angeles.
